The Columbian [illegible]
AND
ALEXANDRIA GAZETT[illegible]

FROM THE GEORGIA GAZETTE.

MR. SMITH,

The failure of the late treaty with the Creek Indians, in the accompliſhment of the object of the ſtate of Georgia, as yet remains unexplained to the public, except by a partial and anonymous publication at Savannah. The following letter, on that ſubject, from the commiſſioners of the United States, written upon the ſpot, with apparent candor, and under the impreſſion of official reſponſibility, explains the cauſe; and its publication, therefore, cannot but be very ſatisfactory to the citizens. With this view, a copy from the original has been procured, and is committed to the preſs.

A CITIZEN.

Auguſta, July 20, 1796.

Colerain, July 1, 1796.

SIR,

HAVING terminated our miſſion here, by concluding a treaty of peace and friendſhip with the Creek nation; we feel it a duty we owe to your excellency, to make this communication to you; to inform you of the pacific diſpoſition of the Creeks. They have, among other things, ſtipulated with us to carry the treaty of New-York completely into effect; and to aid in running the line, from the ſource of the main ſouth fork of the Oconee to the Currahee mountain; at ſuch time and ſuch manner as the Preſident of the United States may direct. The expectations formed by your ſtate, relative to the purchaſe of certain lands guaranteed to the Indians, are fruſtrated. The repreſentatives of the Creek nation came inſtructed by the whole nation, not to part with the lands. We were not appriſed of this, till our negotiation had been extended to all the objects connected immediately with our miſſion. We, on being informed of it, thought it our duty to examine whether any improper interference had been uſed, to produce this determination of the nation, and we are of opinion, after the neceſſary enquiry, that there was not any ſuch interference, on the part of any of the citizens of the United States.

From the long, repeated, and friendly converſations we have had with the chiefs, we have been able to draw from them ſome information, which we owe to our ſituation to give freely to you: it is, that it will require ſome time, and a conſiderable degree of prudence, to impreſs on the Indians a confidence in the uprightneſs of the views of your government, and in the friendly and peaceable intentions of its citizens, who inhabit the frontiers; and until ſuch confidence is eſtabliſhed we are of opinion, that all attempts to acquire land from them by fair and open purchaſe, will be ineffectual.

With our beſt wiſhes for the proſperity of the ſtate of Georgia,

We have the honor to be.

SIR,

Your obedient ſervants.

BENJAMIN HAWKINS,
GEORGE CLYMER,
ANDREW PICKINS.

His excellency Jared Irwin,
Governor of the State of Georgia.

A people jealous, as they ought to be, of their juſt rights, ſhould beware leſt they become dupes to their own cruelty, which is the child of jealouſy; and they, united, are, in their co-operations, as injurious to rational LIBERTY, as paſſive obedience ever was, or ever can be.

Concerning the late treaty with the Creeks, there are in quick motion hoſts of reports as inflammatory, as if they had been formed for that very purpoſe. The tranſactions in that important buſineſs, cannot, with propriety, be publiſhed before they ſhall have been laid before the Preſident. But we think ourſelves warranted in ſaying, that when they do appear to the [illegible] they will extinguiſh [illegible] now kindling by falſe reports.

Wherefore it is hoped, that cenſures on the meaſures, and on the acting characters, will be ſuſpended, until an authentic ſtatement thereof can be had; and then, we doubt not, but truth ſhall appear, with her uſual energy, triumphant over all her enemies.

FROM THE NEW-YORK ARGUS OF AUGUST 3.

The following petition and certificate were handed for publication by captain David Grigg, of the ſchooner Eaſter and Eliza, of this port, arrived from Port-au-Prince.

To his honor R. R. Wilford, Eſq. Commander of his Majeſty's forces at Port-au-Prince.

The Petition of WILLIAM JESSUP, maſter of the American ſhip Mercury, of New-York,

HUMBLY SETS FORTH,

THAT your petitioner being on his paſſage from St. Marcs to this port, was lying to about one o'clock in the morning of the 1ſt inſt. in company with a number of tranſports and his majeſty's frigate Succeſs, commanded by Captain Pigot, when the Succeſs wore ſhip and ran foul of the Mercury, the captain of the frigate ordered his people to cut away every thing they could lay their hands on, the jib-boom, ſpritſail-yard, fore-ſtay, top maſt-ſtays, jib-ſtays, hopper, ſhank painters, and two ſtrands of his ſmall bower cable, were cut:—he further ordered his men to cut away and bring on board the frigate, the Mercury's jib and fore-top-maſt ſtay-ſail, which was done, Captain Pigot telling his men at the ſame time, they would do to make trowſers. Your petitioner, begged Captain Pigot for God's ſake not to cut any more than he cou'd avoid, or words to that effect. Captain Pigot forthwith commanded his people to bring the d—d raſcal that ſpoke on board the frigate. Your petitioner was then ſeized and ordered on board the frigate, where he remained for a few minutes till the veſſels were cleared. Captain Pigot thereupon deſired the boatſwain's mates to give the d——d raſcal, meaning your petitioner, a good flogging. They took hold of your petitioner, and enquired who he was; it was told him, he was the the maſter of the Mercury. "Well," ſaid Captain Pigot, "Flog him well, and let him flog his officers."—Theſe orders were inſtantly obeyed, in ſo ſevere and cruel a manner that your petitioner was nearly bereft of his ſenſes. During the time your petitioner was thus ſo brutally beaten and ill-treated, he, your petitioner, made uſe of no offenſive language whatever, or no kind of reſiſtance, but only begged they would have compaſſion on him.—No attention was paid to his cries, but on the contrary they proceeded to beat him with the ſame violence, until he, Captain Pigot, was ſuppoſed to be ſatisfied. Your petitioner was now again ordered in the frigate's boat, to be put on board his ſhip, without ever once having exchanged a word with Captain Pigot. Your petitioner arrived here the ſame day, when he exhibited the marks and bruiſes of his ſhocking treatment to a number of the moſt reſpectable inhabitants and others in the town of Port-au-Prince, who all impartially pronounced it an outrage of the moſt brutal and unmanly kind, as the certificate annexed to this paper abundantly teſtifies.

Your Petitioner, therefore, humbly pray your honor, to be pleaſed to interfere in his behalf by ſuch repreſentations as your honor may think meet, to lay before the proper authority in this country, that ſhould take cogniſance of the above affair, in ſuch a manner, as that he your petitioner may obtain that juſtice and ſatisfaction which the nature of an offence ſo glaring and unprecedented loudly calls for, and your petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c. &c.

Signed by

WILLIAM JESSUP.

Port-au-Prince, 4th July, 1796.

WE, whoſe names are hereunto ſubſcribed, do certify and atteſt, that having ſeen and viewed the marks and laſhing inflicted on the body and perſon of captain Jeſſup, maſter of the ſhip Mercury of New-York, by order of capt. Pigot, commander of his majeſty's frigate Succeſs, on the morning of the 1ſt July, do declare, that the facts ſtated in his petition hereto annexed, as far as the ſame regard his perſon, are ſtrictly conformable to truth, and we do moreover give it as our candid opinion, that the danger to be apprehended from ſuch wanton and barbarous treatment, is of the moſt imminent and alarming nature to the perſon and life of Capt. Jeſſup, revolting to humanity, degrading and diſhonorable in the higheſt degree to the commander of a ſhip of his Britannic majeſty.

I do certify that I have viewed the body and arms of captain Jeſſup, and that it appears to me, that he has been very ſeverely flogged, beat and bruiſed by ſome perſon or perſons unknown to me.

L. MACNEAL.

I certify as above,

Thomas Brunten, C. Macpherſon, F. Bellaney, J. Grant Forbes, Joſiah Lewdin, Sam. B. Whitaker. Ben Holmes, Jacob Haylander, Charles Packer, M. Gillies, Wilm. Dunbar, William Dickſon. J. Pacifico. Woodman; James Donnell, Paul Simeon, Edmd. Kearney. Jno. Troup, Wm. Wilſon, A. Hamilton, Wm. Wenham, Wm. Young, Geo. Reinhold, Thos. Satt, Robt. Williams, Charles Hadfielk, David Grigg.

We the ſubſcribers, paſſengers on board the ſhip Mercury, William Jeſſup, maſter, from New-York, do certify and declare, that when the Succeſs frigate ran foul of the Mercury on the night of the firſt inſt. on our paſſage from St. Marc's to this port, we did not hear captain Jeſſup utter or ſay any thing of an irritating or offenſive nature, but behaved in the moſt paſſive and forbearing ſtile in his anſwers when hailed by the Succeſs. That at the time he was taken from or left the Mercury to go on board the Succeſs, he appeared to be in perfect health, but on his return therefrom he was in a very ſuffering condition, owing to and by reaſon of, as we verily believe, the ſore beating and bruiſes, whereof his body and arms, which he exhibited to us, bore the moſt convincing proof, and which to our knowledge he received while on board the above frigate Succeſs.

Given under our hands at Port-au-Prince, Iſland of St. Domingo, this eighth day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix.

FRANCE.

Thomas Paine to the Council of Five Hundred.

CITIZENS,

I preſent you a ſmall work entitled, "Decay and Fall of the Engliſh Syſtem of Finance;" in which I have explained and brought to light the finances of your principal enemy, the Engliſh government. If I have any ability to judge of the circumſtances, and by them, of probable events, that Machiavelian government draws near its end.

The circumſtances in which it now ſtands, are as curious as they are critical, and quite different from any other it has ever been involved in; two inferior and formidable enemies who never had ſhewn themſelves in any preceding war, preſs it now on every ſide; the one is the great and progreſſive change of opinion, ſpreading itſelf widely in England, concerning the hereditary ſyſtem of government; and this ſyſtem has much more fallen in the opinion of the people of that country, theſe four years, than it had done in France the four years that preceded the French revolution. The other is, the diſcovery made at laſt by the public, that the ſyſtem of finance, by loans or conſtituted rents (funding ſyſtem) the only reſource of the Engliſh government, in order to get the money they are in continual want of, is nothing but a governmental fraud.

In the preceding war the Engliſh government was ſupported by the ſuperſtition of the country for a thing which exiſts but in the name and which they call a conſtitution, and by their credulity in their own ſyſtem of Finance; from theſe two popular errors, it drew all its ſtrength, and now they vaniſh, their reſources are exhauſted.

When the Engliſh government, that monſter, the reſult of national blindneſs and maritime oppreſſion, is once overthrown, the world will be freed from the common enemy, and the two nations, France and England may depend upon a reciprocal fraternity and a durable peace.

The Preſident "I announce to the council, there are depoſited on the table two copies of that work, one in Engliſh, the other tranſlated into French by our colleague Lanthenas."

The honorable mention is called for.

Deſermont "I aſk alſo the honorable mention, but as the work preſented to us is deſerving of fixing of all who are now about laying the foundation of a ſyſtem of finance, and one of our colleagues has tranſlated it into French, I move that the council order its impreſſion and diſtribution to every one of the members."

The propoſition is adopted.
